Expectations

Students will be expected to attend school regularly and work diligently in all their school subjects. Students will conduct themselves appropriately in all they do in College life.

The Athletics Excellence program will be studied during normal class time. Additional coaching sessions will be provided on set days in the afternoons at school. These sessions are not compulsory however attendance is encouraged.

To assist with covering costs, a levy of is added to the student's school fees once accepted into the program. The annual levy contributes towards coaching clinics with experienced coaches, Fast Track Physiotherapy package, training equipment, uniform, back sack and drink bottle.

Please submit this application form by the end of Term 3 to Miss Emma Draisey by returning it to the school reception or scanning and emailing it to ejdraisey@bne.catholic.edu.au

Selection trials and/or successful applications will be notified via email.
